

Experience FREEDOM FROM WORRY®

Trust us to protect the things that matter most in life.

Insurance is a complicated subject, but that doesn't mean you should have to struggle to understand your policies.

For over 90 years, McGrath Insurance Group has been providing clients with Freedom from Worry® for the unexpected events in life. As a full-service independent insurance agency we service all of New England for their business insurance, employee benefits, life insurance, home insurance, auto insurance, and specialty insurance needs.

We have been serving clients throughout New England since 1927, and are licensed to do business in over 15 states. With our central location in Sturbridge, we are able to provide our corporate consumers with comprehensive insurance planning and risk management services across the region.

Our licensed customer service representatives completely embody our company's mission statement to educate our clients on their unique insurance needs and the right products and services that will fulfill those needs, providing them with the protection they deserve.

Contact us and experience our client promise of Freedom from Worry® for yourself. Call 800-342-3859, or email us at marketing@mcgrathinsurance.com.
